YOUNG LEGAL AID LAWYERS LEEDS:

Join us on the 8th October for the first YLAL Leeds Meeting.

YLAL seeks to provide a distinct and powerful voice for junior lawyers working (and wanting to work in) legal aid. It is a group of lawyers who are committed to practising in those areas of law, both criminal and civil, that have traditionally been publicly funded.

YLAL's objectives are to:

- campaign for a sustainable legal aid system which provides good quality legal help to those who could not otherwise afford to pay for it;
- promote the interests of new entrants and junior lawyers and to increase social mobility and diversity within the legal aid sector;
- To provide a network for likeminded people beginning their careers in the legal aid sector.

Membership to YLAL is free. The first meeting will provide an overview as to who is YLAL; what we do; the current Legal Aid situation; and our plans going forward.
